Hann. Münden

Description

Welcome to Hann. Münden - Alexander von Humboldt described the town at the confluence of the Fulda and Werra rivers to form the Weser as "one of the seven most beautifully situated towns in the world". With over 700 lovingly restored half-timbered houses from all style periods, the town of Hann. Münden, almost completely surrounded by water, is one of the half-timbered towns of European rank.

In the morning, enjoy a rich breakfast in a pleasant atmosphere. Whether energy-rich for the active, vital for the health-conscious or hearty for the gourmet, our stylish breakfast rooms offer something special for each of our guests. Take a seat at a lovingly laid table with selected Fürstenberg porcelain.

Experience the warm hospitality of our house with dignified comfort at reasonable prices.
